STUDENTS' DAY.

First Inter-Collegiate in Utah's History.

A GLORIOUS SUCCESS

Many Games Played—Honors About Even, the Academy Boys Having a Little the Best of it in Points Made—Baseball—Banquet—Ball.

The town belongs to happy youth today, to the students of the University of Utah and the students of the B. Y. Academy. All the morning a deep feeling of joyous expectancy pervaded the entire city. B. Y. A. students in neat attire, and wearing the college colors, neat badges of white and blue, were fitting about the streets preparing to receive their guests from Salt Lake.

By 9 o'clock the academy students had practically all congregated at the U. P. depot and were waiting for their visitors. They had with them their excellent brass band, and stirring music and the moving mass of gay and blithe young men and women made things about the depot appear decidedly like a fair. At 9:50 the Union Pacific special steamed in, bearing 186 students, all wearing the university colors, silver and deep red. The band was playing a lively air. The train stopped and the visitors were greeted with the academy yell: "Rah-rah, Rah-rah, Rah-rah, B. Y. A. Zip, boom, bah. Yuh, yah, yah. 'Gadeuv. 'Gadeuv. Rah-rah-rah." The university students answered with their yell: "Rah-rah-rah. Rah-rah-rah. Rah-rah-rah. Utah. Sis boom ah. Rah-rah-rah. Hahababoo, hahababoo. We are the people, the U. of U. Oh, who are the stud? We are the stud. U—P—A—H. Rah-rah-rah."

The run was made in one hour and fifteen minutes, including five stops. The special under the charge of Agent Taggart left Salt Lake at 8:35 and reached here at 9:55. The best accommodations were given and the whole management of the excursion was entirely satisfactory. The 186 students, together with other visitors on the train and those who came down last night and this morning on their wheels makes the number of visitors in the city today, other than the academy students and many of their friends and relatives from the nearby towns in the county, in the neighborhood of three hundred. Leaving the depot at 8:30, the train went to the west where games were at once begun.

Contests were conducted as follows and with the following results:

PUTTING THE HAMMER—16 LBS.
E. N. Naegle, B. Y. A., 63 ft. 9 in.; Paul Kimball, U. of U., 59 ft. 9 in.

STANDING HIGH JUMP.
Bert Olson, B. Y. A., 7 ft. 8 in.; Sam Paul, U. of U., 7 ft. 10 in.

FIFTY YARD DASH.
H. Smith and Raymond Ray, B. Y. A., and R. Kenyon and M. Oglesby, U. of U., H. Smith winner. Time 5:3-5 seconds. Oglesby second, Kenyon third.

PUTTING SHOT—14 LBS.
G. P. Garff, B. Y. A., 43 ft. 6 in.; P. P. Christensen, U. of U., 34 ft. 10 1/2 in.

STANDING HIGH JUMP.
G. M. Richards, B. Y. A., F. Colton, U. of U., Tie—4 ft. 4 in.

100 YARD DASH.
Smith and Naegle, B. Y. A., Oglesby and Kenyon U. of U., Oglesby winner. Smith a close second. Time 11 seconds.

At 2 o'clock the visitors were banqueted at the B. Y. academy and as this issue goes to press a game of base ball is being played. A tug-of-war match will be pulled and a bicycle race run. Supper will be eaten at the academy and at night a grand ball will be given in the opera house.

NOTES.
This is the first intercollegiate that ever occurred in Utah.

Professor Cummings of the Greek and Latin departments U. of U. rendered the boys efficient help in the field checking and keeping tally.

No unpleasantness whatever occurred all day.

P. P. Christensen late secretary of the constitutional convention is a U. of U. and entered into the sports today in a whole-souled manner. Garff beat him badly pulling the shot. Garff says he can't "put a shot" nearly as well as he can put Charlie Crane on the sure winning road for the governorship. The boys all call him "Crane" or "the head of the Crane bureau" and he takes it good naturedly.

Metcalf and Driggs of the deaf mute department U. of U. came down on wheels, stopping at Pleasant Grove last night.

The school girls are all charming and beautiful.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Coray, and carried out the program for the afternoon. The first paper was on "French Artists and Artisans" given by Miss Ida Jones. The young lady gave a sketch of the lives and most famous pictures of the modern French artists, and spoke briefly of impressionism, the new art. Mrs. Reed gave the domestic news, and Mrs. Barlow the foreign news. After recess Mrs. Bonham entertained the club with an excellent review of "Romeo and Juliet," after which Miss Thompson gave a sketch of the life of Rachel, the famous actress. After the critic's report the club adjourned for one week to meet at the home of Mrs. Coray.

None Bly is an American. Her real name is Elizabeth Cochran. She is more of an American than most Americans because her ancestors in the gloomy past came over and helped cut down the first trees in Pennsylvania. Nellie Bly's achievements lead one to believe that she must be at least 24 years old. Her appearance, however, is that of a much younger woman.

She is rather tall and slender, with a very interesting and intelligent face. Her eyes are brown, her hair almost black. Her hands seem almost too small to hold a pen. She writes, however, very rapidly.

The newspaper work which this young woman has done has had the advantage of publicity. She lived as a supposedly insane patient in the asylum on Blackwell's island for ten days. The result of the articles concerning her experience there was a large appropriation that has meant comfort to many helpless insane creatures.

Her description of the treatment of female prisoners in the police stations was another achievement in the interest of the unfortunate. The appointment of police matrons to care for the female prisoners was the result of that place of excellent work.—New York World.

Council of Jewish Women.

The Hebrews as a race are careful and deliberate. To his quality they owe their individuality and success. But once started they display an energy and activity which are simply phenomenal. This has been the case with the National Council of Jewish Women. They were slow in forming and in elaborating a perfect system of organization. But when this had been accomplished and all was ready they entered into the work of extension with an alacrity that was marvelous. As a result they have completed an organization which covers every part of the Union. Wherever there is a Jewish community the council has an active branch of intelligent, benevolent and hard working women. The heads of the organization have been very skillful in selecting able local managers in nearly every instance.

Among the more active leaders are Mrs. H. Solomon of Chicago, Mrs. A. Kohut of New York, Miss Sadie American and Miss Rosalie Glaser of Chicago, Mrs. Isabel R. Wallach and Mrs. Minnie D. Louis of New York, Mrs. Clifton Levy of Baltimore, Miss Kohler and Miss Wald of New York, Mrs. Carrie Benjamin of Denver and Mrs. Olshesheim of New York.—New York Mail and Express.

The Trilby Waist.

A new wrinkle in designs is the "Trilby" waist, which is trimmed with close bands, laid over the fullness of a plaited or gathered bodice. Trilby herself wore only two of these decorations, which crossed in front, and this adherence to the model is absolute, other forms of trimming filling up deficiencies and making the close bands appear like decoration.—New York Advertiser.

A Bar to Bigamy.

"Boys," said a teacher in a Sunday school, "can any of you quote a verse from Scripture to prove that it is wrong for a man to have two wives?" He paused, and after a moment or two a bright boy raised his hand. "Well, Thomas," said the teacher encouragingly. Thomas stood up and said, "No man can serve two masters." The question ended there.—Boston Home Journal.

NOTICE.

To all Interested in Irrigation:

Under the auspices of the national irrigation congress, and of the irrigation commission for Utah, hereby inaugurated, there will be created a state association for Utah, the officers for which will be a president, two vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer. The governor of Utah to be ex-officio president of the association.

There will be a county committee of five from each county who shall have general supervision of local or town associations.

The officers for each local or town association will be a president, a vice-president and a corresponding secretary.

The association immediately upon being formed will issue a call, by advertisement in Utah papers and otherwise, for all persons interested in irrigation, forestry and other cognate matters to become members.

The membership fee will be $1.00 per annum, payable in advance for which members will be entitled to receive a copy of all pamphlets and other literature issued by the association. It shall be the duty of each member of this association to foster and promote the interests of irrigation matters in Utah, and the special duty of the county committee, and the local presidents, vice-presidents, and the corresponding secretaries, to promote the growth of the association by inviting all interested parties in their respective counties and towns to become members.

The corresponding secretaries will make monthly reports to the secretary of the association regarding crops, rainfall, canals, ditches, etc., according to instructions furnished them from the central office.
